You can use Consumer Online Banking to: view certain Account information including balance and transaction information and Account statements; perform self-service Account maintenance; change Security Credentials; communicate with us via secure messaging; and perform other activities.

(ii) Alerts. Your enrollment in Consumer Online Banking allows you to activate the Alerts service. By using the Alerts service, you agree to provide a valid phone number, e-mail address or other delivery location so that we may send you certain information about your Account. Alerts are provided for your convenience and do not replace your Account statement. You understand that Alerts may include personal or confidential information about you such as your name, Account activity or status. Your receipt of each Alert may be delayed or impacted by factors not within our control, such as how often you check your Alerts, and other factors attributable to your Internet service provider, wireless provider, or other parties. We will not be liable for (a) losses or damages arising from any non-delivery, delayed delivery or misdirected delivery of the Alerts; (b) inaccurate content in the Alerts; or (c) any actions taken or not taken due to an Alert. There is no fee for the Alert service, but you are responsible for any and all charges imposed by your communication service providers. You may deactivate the Alert Service at any time through Consumer Online Banking.

(b) You may initiate a transfer request at any time provided all systems are operational. If the transfer request is received before 8:00 p.m. Central Time on a Business Day ("Cutoff Time") the transfer will occur on that Business Day, if the transfer request is received after the Cutoff time on a Business Day or on a non-Business Day the transfer will occur on the next Business Day.

(c) You agree to pay the applicable service charges for transfers as shown in the RAA.

(d) Transfers are subject to any limitations on the number of transfers that apply to your Account(s) as provided in your RAA.

By using any new or modified Services or features when they become available, or if you permit any other person or entity to use or access the Service, you agree to be bound by the terms concerning these Services or features. You may incur service charges if you use some Services available through Consumer Online Banking. Please review the terms, and any applicable service charge schedules we provide to you when you enroll or use each Service, as applicable. You authorize us to debit your Account for all service charges when incurred. We reserve the right to add or modify service charges from time to time and will notify you when we do so.

6. SECURITY CREDENTIALS.

We are authorized to act on transactions and other instructions received using your Security Credentials, and you agree that the use of your Security Credentials will have the same effect as your signature authorizing the transaction(s). If you disclose your Security Credentials to any person or entity, including any data aggregation service provider, direct us to assign Security Credentials to any entity or person, or permit any other person or entity to use Consumer Online Banking, you are responsible for any activity and transactions performed on your Account by such person or entity and for any use of your personal information and Account information by such person or entity. The loss, theft or unauthorized use of your Security Credentials could cause you to lose some or all of the money in your Account, plus any amount available under any line of credit. It could also permit unauthorized persons to have access to your personal information and Account information, and to use the information for fraudulent purposes including identity theft.

You are responsible for maintaining the security of your Security Credentials and for any transactions performed or information received using such Security Credentials, to the fullest extent allowed by law.

We will ask for your Security Credentials to confirm your identity only if you call us. We will never contact you via e-mail, secure messaging or telephone requesting your Security Credentials. If you are ever contacted by anyone asking for your Security Credentials, you should refuse and immediately contact us. You may be the target of attempted identity theft.

7. ADDRESS OR OTHER CHANGES.

It is solely your responsibility to ensure that your contact information is current and accurate. This includes, but is not limited to, name, address, phone numbers and e-mail addresses. You may request address changes through the Consumer Online Banking website or by contacting customer service at 1-800-322-3623. These requests will be separately verified with you.

8. REPORTING UNAUTHORIZED TRANSACTIONS.

If you believe someone may attempt to use or has used Consumer Online Banking without your permission, or that any other unauthorized use or security breach has occurred, you agree to immediately notify us at 1-800-322-3623. You may also contact us electronically by sending a secure e-mail message through our secure messaging system within Consumer Online Banking.

9. INDEMNITY.

You acknowledge and agree that you are personally responsible for your conduct while using Consumer Online Banking and agree to indemnify and hold us and our officers, directors, employees and agents harmless from and against any loss, damage, liability, cost or expense of any kind, including reasonable attorneys' service charges that we may incur in connection with (i) a third-party claim related to your use of Consumer Online Banking, (ii) the use of Consumer Online Banking by anyone using your Security Credentials or the Security Credentials we assign to someone else at your direction, (iii) your violation of this Agreement, (iv) your violation of applicable state or federal law, any Federal Reserve Board or clearinghouse association rule or the rights of any third party, or (v) your provision to us of a telephone or mobile phone number, e-mail address or other delivery location that is not your own. Your obligations under this Section shall survive termination of this Agreement.

10. RISK OF LOSS.

In the event of a system failure or interruption, your data may be lost or destroyed. You assume the responsibility to verify the accuracy and completeness of any transaction affected by the system failure or interruption through means other than Consumer Online Banking. We will not be liable for failure to provide access or for interruptions in access to Consumer Online Banking due to a system failure or due to other acts or circumstances beyond our control, and you hereby expressly assume such risks.

We will use commercially reasonable efforts to secure Consumer Online Banking Service to prevent access by unauthorized persons and to prevent the introduction of any malicious code, such as a computer virus. However, no security system is failsafe, and despite our efforts the security of Consumer Online Banking Service could be compromised or malicious code could be introduced by third parties. You acknowledge that there are certain security, corruption, transmission error and access availability risks associated with using open networks such as the Internet and you hereby expressly assume such risks.

We are not responsible for any delay, error, problem, damages or other loss you may suffer due to malfunction or misapplication of your Systems, including your Internet service provider, wireless provider or third parties, or any equipment you may use (including your computer and Mobile Devices, if applicable) to access or communicate with Consumer Online Banking, and you hereby expressly assume such risks.

11. TERMINATION.

We can terminate Consumer Online Banking and any Service under this Agreement at any time for any reason without notice to you. If we terminate Consumer Online Banking or any Service, or if you terminate Consumer Online Banking or any Service, you will need to re-enroll before you will be able to schedule any transaction through Consumer Online Banking. You may terminate Consumer Online Banking or any Service at any time by contacting us.

12. RECORDS.

Our records kept in the regular course of business shall be presumed to accurately reflect the contents of your instructions to us and, in the absence of manifest error, will be binding and conclusive. 18. LIABILITY FOR UNAUTHORIZED TRANSACTIONS.

a. LIABILITY. If you are a consumer customer and you transfer funds between two Accounts or use Bill Pay to make transfers from your Account to a Payee, the following applies to such use of the Service.

Contact us AT ONCE if you believe your Security Credentials have been lost or stolen. During business hours please call our Customer Care Center at 1-800-322-3623. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down. You could lose all the money in your Account plus your maximum overdraft line of credit. If you tell us within two (2) Business Days after you learn of the loss or theft of your security credentials, you can lose no more than $50 if someone used your Security Credentials without your permission.

If you do NOT tell us within two (2) Business Days after you learn of the loss or theft of your Security Credentials, and we can prove that we could have stopped someone from using your Security Credentials without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500.

Also, if your statement shows transfers that you did not make, including those made using your Security Credentials, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within sixty (60) days after the statement was provided or made available to you, you may not get back any money you lost if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If a good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time period.

If you believe your Security Credentials have been lost or stolen, immediately call 1-800-322-3623 or visit us at one of our branches.

b. RESOLVING ERRORS OR PROBLEMS. If you think your statement is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement, contact us by telephone at 1-800-322-3623, contact us electronically by sending a secure e-mail message through our secure messaging system, or write us at First Midwest Bank Customer Care, 3800 Rock Creek Boulevard, Joliet, Illinois 60431, as soon as you can.

We must hear from you no later than sixty (60) days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared. When you contact us, our representative will need to know the following information:

- your name and Account number;
- a description of the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and an explanation of why you believe it is an error or why you need more information; and
- the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within ten (10) Business Days.

We will determine whether an error occurred within ten (10) Business Days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to forty-five (45) days to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this we will credit your Account within ten (10) Business Days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) Business Days, we may not credit your Account.

For errors involving new Accounts, point-of-sale or transfers initiated outside the United States, we may take up to ninety (90) days to investigate your complaint or question. For a new Account, we may take up to twenty (20) Business Days to credit your Account for the amount you think is in error.

We will tell you the results within three (3) Business Days after completing our investigation. If we decide that there was no error we will send you a written explanation. You may ask for copies of the documents that we used in our investigation.

19. PRIVACY AND CONFIDENTIALITY.

The importance of maintaining the confidentiality and privacy of the information provided by our customers is one of our highest priorities. Our Privacy Policy (described below) was provided to you when you opened your Account and is provided to you annually in an Account statement or a separate mailing. Please review it carefully. Our additional commitments for First Midwest Bank Consumer Online Banking including Bill Pay are as follows: We will not share Payee information or Account information with non-affiliated third parties without your authorization, except to furnish you the Services or as required or permitted by law. Subject to the foregoing, you are licensing to us any information, data, passwords, materials or other information you provide through or to us and the Service. We may modify, display, distribute and create new material using such information but only to provide the Services to you. By submitting information through these Services, you automatically agree or warrant that you are the owner of such information.

20. CONSUMER ONLINE BANKING BILL PAY.

a. BILL PAY. This Section 20 contains the terms for use of First Midwest Bank's Consumer Online Banking Bill Pay Service ("Bill Pay"), in which you authorize us to remit funds from your Charge Account to Payees you have specified. Our receipt of your Payment Instructions authorizes us to debit your Charge Account and to remit funds on your behalf to the designated Payee.

When you enroll in this Service on our Consumer Online Banking website and use the Service, those actions constitute your acknowledgment that you have read, understand and agree to the terms in this Section, and your intent to be bound by this Section and all future amendments.

You agree to pay service charges for the Consumer Online Banking Bill Pay Service in accordance with our current fee schedule. Service charges will be deducted from your Charge Account. Any service charges associated with your Account will continue to apply. Service charges for this Service are subject to change at any time.

You may request a payment to be made at one time only or on an automatic recurring basis in such a manner as you direct. If a payment is scheduled for a non-Business Day, the payment will be made on the previous Business Day. Payments are made at our option either by paper Check, electronically by ACH credit or through any other method we choose.

You may make payments to any business, merchant or professional with a valid United States address. We reserve the right to limit the amount of payments, the number of payments or the Payees you may designate. You agree not to make any payment of alimony, child support, taxes or other governmental service charges or court-ordered payment, payment for gambling debts or payment otherwise prohibited by law using the Bill Pay service. We reserve the right to refuse payment and will notify you promptly if payment is refused. In no event will we be liable for any claims or damages resulting from your scheduling these types of payments or our refusing to make a payment.

You may use Bill Pay 24 hours a day, seven days a week, except during maintenance periods. However, Bill Payments can only be processed on Business Days. Payment Instructions submitted before 9:30 p.m. Central Time on a Business Day are processed the same Business Day. Payment Instructions received after 9:30 p.m. Central Time on a Business Day or on a non-Business Day will be processed on the next Business Day.

You understand and agree that it is your responsibility to provide Payment Instructions in such a manner that the Payee will receive your payment no later than the Due Date on the statement provided to you by the Payee. We recommend that you provide Payment Instructions no later than ten (10) Business Days prior to the Scheduled Payment date. You must provide us with the correct Payee name, address, Payee Account information and payment amount. You will also agree to accurately follow product use instructions provided in the Bill Pay Banking Online Services on-line tutorial. Your Charge Account, including your maximum overdraft line of credit, must contain sufficient collected funds to complete the payment on the Transmit Date. We will use reasonable efforts to properly and timely make all your payments. However, you agree that the Bank will incur no liability if we are unable to complete any payments for the following reasons:

- erroneous or incomplete information is provided by you, which prevents accurate and timely payment;
- the payment was insufficiently funded;
- a Payee cannot or will not accept a payment delivered by us;
- a Payee delays crediting the payment to your Payee Account;
- we suspect the payment of being fraudulent and have provided notification to you; or
- we suspect that the Payee is a blocked entity under Office of Foreign Assets Control Sanctions.

You may not schedule duplicate payments. A duplicate payment is one that is scheduled to be made to the same Payee on the same day for the same amount.

We will notify you of failed or returned transactions. If we request additional information and you do not provide information needed to resolve the payment issue within five (5) Business Days, the payment will be cancelled and funds will be recredited to your Charge Account.

If you schedule a payment and follow the instructions as outlined above but the payment is not received by the Payee in a timely manner, you should contact customer service at 800.322.3623. Use reasonable efforts to ensure Payees reverse any late service charges. However, First Midwest Bank will not be responsible for any loss you may incur as a consequence of late payment.

You are required to promptly provide notice to us of any unauthorized transfer at 800.322.3623, or write First Midwest Bank, Customer Care, 3800 Rock Creek Boulevard, Joliet, Illinois 60431, Attn: Consumer Online Banking or by sending an e-mail message through our secure messaging system within Consumer Online Banking. When you give another party your Security Credentials, you are authorizing that party to use the Bill Pay service and you are responsible for all payments that party performs while using your Security Credentials, even those you did not intend or want performed. Your liability for unauthorized electronic transfers or payments is described in "Liability for Unauthorized Transactions" (Section 18).

You acknowledge that, in providing this Service, the Bank may rely upon certain third-party service providers to provide database storage, database access, switching and other data communication services to the Bank. You acknowledge and agree that your rights under this Agreement shall be solely and exclusively against the Bank.

If you do not have sufficient funds available on the Transmit Date, we will not process your payment. Your right to make Online Bill Payments will be terminated if, on two (2) occasions, the available funds in your Charge Account are insufficient to make a payment you have requested. You also understand that First Midwest Bank will not be responsible for any loss or penalty that you may incur due to lack of available funds or other conditions that may prevent the withdrawal of funds from your Charge Account.

You may change or delete a single payment up until 9:30 p.m. Central Time on the Transmit Date for that payment. You may cancel or edit any Scheduled Payment (including Recurring Payments) by following the directions within the Bill Pay service. Once we have begun processing a payment it cannot be cancelled or edited, unless a stop payment request is submitted and effective pursuant to the terms of this Agreement and your Charge Account. A fee for the stop payment service will be assessed according to the Bank's current fee schedule. Once an electronic payment is submitted and processed, it cannot be deleted. You should contact the Payee for a refund or ask the Bank to submit a claim.

You may terminate your use of Bill Pay at any time by notifying us in writing. Any instructions from you to make payments will continue in effect until we receive your notice and have had a reasonable time to act on it. Subject to applicable law, we may terminate your use of Bill Pay if you do not comply with the terms of this Agreement or you do not maintain your Charge Account in good standing. If your Charge Account is closed we will automatically cancel your Bill Payment service. Once we terminate this Agreement or the Bill Payment service, no further or pending payments will be made, including but not limited to any payments scheduled in advance or any preauthorized Recurring Payments, and you must make other arrangements to make these payments.

b. EXPEDITED PAYMENTS. You may use the Expedited Payment Service to make a same day ACH payment to a participating Payee for an additional fee. You may pay any Payee that is approved by us and eligible for payment under the Expedited Payment Service. By providing us with your Payee Account (including, but not limited to, Payee name, Payee Account number and the amount of your payment), you authorize us to initiate and complete the payment scheduled by you through the Expedited Payment Service.

You may access Expedited Payment Service online whenever the Bill Pay Service is available. However, each individual Payee sets their own business days and payment cutoff times and they are subject to change. To ensure timely payment and obtain the full benefit of the Expedited Payment Service, your Charge Account must be in good standing and you must submit an eligible, accurate Payment Instruction containing all of the information required by the Expedited Payment Service before the cut-off time for the applicable Payee's business day. Funds will be debited from your Charge Account and credited to your Payee Account on the date we indicate at the time you submit your Payment Instruction. If we are unable to complete the transaction because of insufficient funds in your Charge Account or some other reason, and you have activated the Alerts Service we will send you an Alert at the email address you have provided with this Agreement. We are not responsible for any charges imposed or any other action taken by a Payee if your Payee Account is not in good standing with the Payee or that result from a payment that you have not scheduled properly, including any applicable finance charges and late fees. In addition, we will not be liable if there are insufficient available funds in your Charge Account or if any part of the electronic funds transfer system network is not working properly. You cannot cancel an Expedited Payment.

The fee for the Expedited Payment Service will be separately displayed at the time you submit your Payment Instruction. The fee will be deducted from your Charge Account along with the amount of the payment to the Payee on the Business Day that you schedule the transaction. This fee is subject to change from time to time.
